

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release

April 17, 2009

Better Business Bureau's Kathy W. Barrett to Present April Lunch and Learn Session

Greenville, SC – Kathy W. Barrett, CEO and president of the Better Business Bureau® Upstate South Carolina, will present “Scam Jam: Get Information on Current Scams in our Market” at the Association for Women in Communications’ April Lunch and Learn on April 27th 2009.

Barrett joined the BBB staff in 1991 as manager of the Advertising Review and Autoline Departments. Mrs. Barrett has served in virtually every department of the Bureau including member services, IT, office manager, staff trainer, national information network coordinator, BBB Online, events coordinator, administrative assistant and vice-president

Barrett has an associate’s degree in Auto Body & Automotive Technology from Greenville Technical College. She is also a graduate from the Professional Development Program.

The April meeting will be Monday, April 27th at the Greenville Marriott in the Giatu Restaurant. Networking and registration is 11:30pm – 12:00pm, with the lunch and lecture 12:00pm – 1:00pm. The meeting price, which includes lunch, is $15 for AWC members and $20 for non-members.

Please RSVP by email to ellen.norman@chartercom.com with your name, company, membership status, and phone number. No shows for the meeting will be billed.

The Association for Women in Communications is a professional organization that champions the advancement of women across all communications disciplines by recognizing excellence, promoting leadership and positioning its members at the forefront of the evolving communications era. Formed in 1991 by Anne Clapper of Clapper and Company, the Upstate South Carolina Chapter seeks to embody the international organization’s goals.

###

